The participants of the 4th ODS Conference have adopted the following principles and submit the note on the Munich Declaration for ODS for discussion and consideration:

1. In light of Israel's failure to dismantle its institutions and laws that keep people apart, favor Israeli Jews and discriminate against Palestinians, stop the construction of colonies exclusively for Israeli Jews on Palestinian land, end ethnic cleansing of Palestinians, and terminate its continued catastrophic practices against Palestinian lives and properties:
2. In order to unify the people of historic Palestine, we invite residents of and refugees and their descendants from the land of Palestine everywhere to undertake free democratic debate about the goals and principles of this declaration and consider adopting the vision of one democratic state in historic Palestine.
3. We invite on all those who cherish freedom, justice, equality and democracy and who reject racism and segregation to join us in building the movement for one democratic state in historic Palestine based on the principles stated in the Munich Declaration.
4. We call for the repudiation of the Oslo Accords and all other agreements between the PA and the occupying power, the dismantling of the Palestinian Authority which has become Israel's economic and security collaborators, and holding settler colonial apartheid Israel accountable for its crimes in historic Palestine.

5. We call on the future citizens of one democratic state to unite, develop, and intensify mass popular struggle to achieve ODS objectives and urge all ODS adherents to support worldwide struggles against all forms of colonialism, racism, and oppression.
6. We call for the immediate end to the siege and strangulation of Gaza.
7. We urge individuals and groups active in the entire Palestine solidarity movement to consider adopting the principles of the Munich Declaration for one democratic state in historic Palestine and add its goals openly to their platforms and campaigns.

A Note on the Munich Declaration for ODS:

ODS will strive to establish an economic system that is based on social and economic justice which will guarantee and enhance human dignity, equality and the well-being of all citizens. We encourage continued discussion on the future economic system.
